CHASE PARK NEWSLETTER

April / May 2022 | Page six

What fragrance in thy splendoured dress,
Fond flower touched of sweet caress,
By angels who in kindness
Gave thee to all,
Supplanting in my wilderness
Thy very soul.

Richer am I at first glance
Thy queenly beauty does enhance,
My world, and in obedience
I humbly bow,
God meant thy kin, should all enchant,
So, do thee now.

A sad farewell to Brian Teasdale snr peacefully in Chase Park Neuro Centre, Whickham on 26th May 2022 aged 90 years. Brian, local poet and song writer, Beloved husband of late Isobel, much loved dad of Karen, dear father in-law Of Kenny and loved grandad of Stephen and Christopher. Brian achieved so much in his life and we had the honour and pleasure to be apart of this. Brian recently celebrated his 90th birthday at Chase Park with a violinist playing Brian's recently released song little girl that was launched on BBC radio Newcastle in December 2021 we also had the pleasure of reading his poems from his book called Books and Brooks. One of his poems (above) Brian will

Be deeply missed by everyone at Chase Park
